MICHAEL JACKSON is planning a pop comeback by starring in a glitzy show in Las Vegas.

Jacko, 48, whose mega-bucks deal could rival Celine Dion's £150million Vegas contract, has jetted back to the US for talks.

Promoter Jack Wishna, who is masterminding the singer's comeback, said: "We are working on several projects.

"He is one of the greatest entertainers in the world and is poised to return to the top."

Jacko fled the United States after he was acquitted of child molestation charges in June 2005, moving to Bahrain and then Ireland.

It is claimed he was more than £100million in debt and has been forced to re-finance his lucrative share in the Beatles' back catalogue.

The star, who has not toured since the mid-Nineties, botched a comeback at the World Music Awards last month.
